VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT

This announcement is made by International Entertainment Corporation (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) on a voluntary basis.

Reference is made to the voluntary announcement of the Company dated 16 March 2020 in relation to the suspension of gaming operations in Manila and the postponement of English Football League fixtures until 3 April 2020.

FURTHER POSTPONEMENT OF ENGLISH FOOTBALL LEAGUE (THE “EFL”) FIXTURES

The board (the “Board”) of directors (the “Directors”) of the Company was aware of that on 3 April 2020, the football authorities (the “Football Authorities”) in the United Kingdom including the EFL announced that in light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, they have collectively agreed to further postpone the football competitions until it is safe and appropriate to resume (the “Postponement”).

The Football Authorities also announced that the situation will be kept under constant review with matches only returning at an appropriate point and based on the latest guidance provided by the relevant government departments and health authorities of the United Kingdom. However, there is now no definitive date for the resumption of football competitions. The Company will closely monitor the situation and assess impacts on the financial position and operating results of the Group.

The Company will make further announcement if any new update to be received from the EFL regarding the Postponement and other related matters. As at the date of this announcement, the Group is not able to ascertain the impact on the Postponement.
